

Name _____

Date _____

CONJUNCTIONS

Directions: Underline the conjunction in each sentence.

1. If you have time, will you visit Aunt Mary while you are in New York?
2. The tornado struck not only the house but also the barn.
3. The baby can neither walk nor talk.
4. Volleyball and softball are popular sports in our school.
5. Father and Mother were surprised, but they soon recovered.
6. He failed because he was both lazy and dishonest.
7. Although the rain had ended, the sky still looked dark and stormy.
8. After the school year had closed, one of my classmates and her sister took a trip through the Black Hills.
9. Did someone knock, or am I imagining things?
10. As I have told you, you may have either this one or that one.
11. The drivers left the deserted station and headed for the next stop.
12. Without a map to guide her, Susan pushed through the jungle after her plane crashed.
13. The governor workers harder than anyone on his staff does.
14. Because most of the contributions were made this month, the organization is able to pay the rent.
15. Chris excited, but Anthony is absolutely hysterical.
16. Either you need to leave or they will be forced to call security.
17. The mouse is sad for she has lost her log.
18. As fair as the system is, it is not perfect.
19. Theo said that he wanted to go with us to the movies.
20. Not only the Mets but also the Yankees are in the World Series.
21. Maybe Alicia will stop here before she leaves for Paris.
22. Does the coordinator know when the plane leaves?
23. Tess can take the money or risk everything on the next question.